Technical Entrepreneurship

- Acquire specific skills needed to effectively start or run a business
- Ideal for graduates with technical credentials or certifications*
- Receive as many as 23 Prior Learning Assessment credits for technical competencies/trade skills
- Complete degree online and/or in-person in as little as one year
- Financial Aid may be available to students enrolled in this program

*Third party credential and an advanced score on a third party assessment such as NOCTI required.
Decisions regarding financial aid eligibility determined by Financial Aid Office.

For more information please contact greg.luce@bucks.edu in the Department of Business Studies, Grupp Hall 401.

Bucks | SMART.
County Community College

Business @ Bucks

SUPER-Articulation Agreement with Career and Technical High Schools, Bucks County Community College, and Bloomsburg University

While in high school at a CTC:

- Advanced on NOCTI & earn at least 1 industry credential = 20 Bucks credits
- At least 200 Co-op hours = 3 credits
  No cost to CTC student

**+

Take up to 4 Bucks courses (3 credits each) taught at a CTC

Graduate high school having earned up to 35 college credits at Bucks!
---

BUCKS 1964

- Enroll at Bucks
- Complete remaining 26-38 credits in Technical Entrepreneurship degree program

College credits earned in high school + Bucks credits taken after high school =
Associate's Degree in Technical Entrepreneurship!

Transfer at least 60 credits into Bloomsburg University!

---

BLOOMSBURG UNIVERSITY

- Transfer 60-75 college credits to Bloomsburg University
- Take 45-60 credits through BU either on-site, online, or blended

Associate's Degree + Bloomsburg = 120 college credits
Bachelor of Applied Science (BAS) in Technical Leadership!

See your CTC Counselor/Advisor for details